

Peelers. May 4 1877

by dear old John. Mother doesn't feel his writing letters yet. This has been another shattering day - his kit came back. all his things that he packed so fairly. we remembered everything we see took them out. It was just as he had left it. - dirty clothes etc. - I was bed all his things myself. It is the last time I shall see do anything for him. ~~again~~. The <sup>great</sup> Gilbert Murray brother have come back. Would I wish his to have them, he had evidently treasured them and I shall send you the badge from his cap is another for Wallis - we were glad have two photographs of the frame. It is nice to be able to picture it. and it seems a high open place. Did you see the thing in the Times Sat. Sup. last week on the wooden cross.

It was rather strange that the mark in the little Testament. he had in his breast. pocket. where he fell lay at the words "He who finds his life shall lose it but he who loses his life for My sake shall find it."

Thank Alice very much for her card from the Town. he had a card written from Mr. Jones today but we still don't know his address. Please send it, would you send me the address, the type. writing lady? / Mrs. Maud in Edinburgh on Saturday. She will be back at her work today.

Mother was very pleased to get the frames She asks me to enclose the money for it.
Also she asks me to transfer some for the potatoes she so kindly sent.

Walter was a holiday today. I am going for a walk with him after tea. He said he got great enjoyment from the peace of the hills yesterday noon. It was a very clear night - do, he walked a long way.

Walter is pretty well. But she is finding it harder as the days go on.

I do hope you are well & that things are going well with your work.

Much love

from Auntie.
