

Bramshott.

Thursday.

My Dear well Mother

I got your letter today.

Many thanks for it. You are very kind all of you. I am sorry that you are still worried about work while. I am very fit & happy. I am sorry that you have had so few letters from me. I am sure that I have written some last Wednesday. But I am very much occupied just now. I write as often as I can but you must not be worried if one does not arrive every day.

A copy of the book was arrived from John the money. it is my best of him. we have had a busy day. many a word in the money and jolly long they were. We went back for lunch till 1.30

- for a half hour runny about then out again in the afternoon from 2.30 till five. I have just finished tea and am going to read the rest of the evening go to bed at 8 o'clock!

Wrote to Mrs Maclean yesterday, as well as I could.
She is very kind, so is every body It is quite ridiculous. I am beginning to be not quite so sure about Xmas leave. If any of would be boss to get leave he I doubt if our train fare will be paid. It is only 3 weeks till Xmas now, and we have heard nothing about it.
Hope that you are still all well, and that Alice and General John are prospering very in the shortness of the epistle but I have no news and I am too tired to spin it out to any length by other means.

Much love to all - God bless you all
Your affectionate
Aunt
